

Word for 2019

While many are straying, you must remain anchored in my truth. For I have established you in this city. I am bolting you in place and I will favour you as you continue to seek My face. Anchor yourself to My heart, anchor yourself in My word, anchor yourself in prayer.

Do not look to the right or to the left. For much of the peripheral is shaking loose and will try to grab your attention and your affection. I am establishing, and the enemy is trying to prevent it, but my plans will go forth says the Lord. Do not fear and do not shrink back. For those of you standing on the peripheral, you must choose. For what I am about to do with you will not afford a lukewarm heart or devotion. For I am exposing the lukewarm in this hour and I will not partner with it.

I have aroused many hearts in this place and even kindled a flame. But I desire to ignite a fire that will never go out or ever wane.

I am pulling you in closer, both to Me and into each other. I am asking that you put your hands to the plough together. I want you all moving in the same direction, all moving forward. For this is a year of action says the Lord. There will be no more idly sitting by. Get up and move. Get up and do. This season will require a lot but I will provide for those who abide. I am calling for action. I am calling for unified hearts. Prayer is to become central this year. It is no longer to be neglected. For I am establishing you not only in the city but also in this nation. But you first must be established in prayer. Strengthen your feeble arms and weak knees. Make level paths for your feet so that the lame may not be disabled but rather be healed. Do not faint in well doing, for I have not called you for a short while but for the long haul says the Lord.

Endure hardship as discipline and be transformed. Bear with others in grace and mercy, compassion and love, understanding and long-suffering. If you racing against mere men makes you tired how will you race against horses. If you stumble and fall on open ground, what will you do in the thickets near the Jordan? For I am training you to run with horses says the Lord.

Galatians 6:9

Hebrews 12:12

Jeremiah 12:5

Hebrews 12:7