

Prophetic Word for 2025

Pastor René McIntyre

I saw Pierre Pollievre with red and white boxing gloves on.

He is fit and ready to fight for Canada, but it will indeed be a battle. There will be turbulence in flight mid fight. It will be a bumpy ride but allow no room for fear. There will be a lot to see, politics is about to get interesting, but My church is not to lose focus. You are to train hard, so you are ready for the call to active duty. When my army comes to attention and is sent forth angel armies will back you up. I will deal with disorder, but my church must be in order. I am bringing a shift into greater order in my body.

I will continue walking in the midst of the candlesticks of Canada. Measuring and testing the foundations for cracks and weaknesses that threaten stability and safety for the days ahead. I will continue exposing, tearing down and rebuilding faulty foundations. It is paramount that the foundations are solid, and the cornerstone is set in place. It is time to build like never before, but I will only build upon a solid foundation. Do not neglect the foundation. Greater shakings are on the way, and I desire to make an example out of my body in Canada. I am establishing a church that the gates of hell cannot prevail against, but you must become a strong unified force. It's all hands-on deck. Gone are the days of celebrity. Everyone from the greatest to the least must play their part to push back darkness and advance my Kingdom.

It's time to become battle ready Canada. Embrace apostolic restoration and alignments. There will be apostolic hubs of learning, training, equipping and commissioning established across this nation. Church will begin to look more and more like an army ready for deployment into active duty. Continue to `shift into governmental rule and reign. Those that learn kingdom governmental rule and reign will find themselves shifting systems and structures in society to my glory. You must be ready for suddenlies. There will be an increase of suddenlies, both of the kingdom of darkness and of my Kingdom. There will be revival fires lit across the nation. Revival fires of glory and holiness leading to Christ likeness and radical obedience that will reflect and reveal my glory to the lost. I long to release greater glory in this hour.

Says the Lord
